

Coach Howland

Ben Howland completed his eighth year as the UCLA men's basketball head coach following the 2010-11 campaign. In 2011, Coach Howland led the Bruins to a 23-11 overall record, a third round appearance in the NCAA Tournament and a second-place finish (13-5) in Pac-10 regular season play.

At the national level, Coach Howland has guided the Bruins to three consecutive NCAA Final Fours (2006-08), including the 2006 national championship game and a total of six NCAA Tournament appearances since 2004-05. In conference play, Coach Howland directed the Bruins to three consecutive Pac-10 regular season championships (2006-08) and in 2006 and 2008 the Bruins also won the Pac-10 Tournament.

In 2008, Coach Howland became one of just three coaches in NCAA Div. I history to win at least 30 games in three consecutive seasons (2006-08). During that three-year time frame, Coach Howland won more games (97) than any other head coach in UCLA history, including a school-record 35 victories in 2007-08.

DAY CAMP DESCRIPTION

The Ben Howland Basketball Camp offers a special one-week basketball experience intended exclusively for grade school aged boys and girls (ages 6-12). Campers will have the opportunity to improve their basketball skills under the instruction of UCLA Basketball Head Coach, Ben Howland, and his assistant coaches. Coach Howland's approach to the game and focus on well-rounded, team-oriented play will help every young player become more successful in basketball and in life. The session offers specialized basketball instruction with an emphasis on the fundamentals essential to a developing player's game, including rebounding, ball handling, passing, individual defense, free throw shooting and jump shooting. Each day, campers will get to apply these skills in 3-on-3 and 5-on-5 games. This format is designed specifically to help improve players of all abilities by increasing their enthusiasm and self confidence. The goal of the Ben Howland Basketball Camp is to help young players leave camp a better basketball player and participate in a fun, memorable experience. Get involved and take your basketball game to the next level! Enrollment will be limited, so don't delay!

DROP OFF/PICK UP PROCEDURES

On the first day of camp, all campers are required to register with camp staff between 8:00-9:00am. For the remaining days, parents or guardians can drop off campers at the Palisades High School gymnasium beginning at 8:15am. NO staff supervision will be available before 8:15am on these days. At the conclusion of camp each day, parents or guardians are required to sign a pick-up acknowledgement with camp staff before campers can leave the premises. On the final day of camp, an awards ceremony will be held in the Palisades High School Gymnasium at 2:30pm. Parents and friends are welcome to attend.

AFTER CARE

After Care is an optional service for parents or guardians who are unable to arrange transportation for their son or daughter at the conclusion of the camp day at 3:00pm. After Care will provide camp staff supervision during the hours of 3:00-5:30pm in the Palisades High School gymnasium. After Care will be available at a rate of $100 per-week and cannot be pro-rated. A $25 fee will be automatically charged if a camper is not picked-up before 4pm. Please notify the camp director to enroll in the After Care program.

LUNCH

Each camper is responsible for bringing his or her own lunch. Lunches and beverages will be available for purchase at the camp store during the hours of 9am to 3pm daily.

FACILITIES

The Ben Howland Camp will be held on the campus of Palisades High School. Palisades High School is conveniently located on the west side of Los Angeles and enjoys mild weather during the summer. Four full size courts and extensive outdoor facilities allow plenty of room for camp instruction and game activities. The Palisades High School gymnasium owns a reputation as one of Los Angeles' finest high school playing facilities and one of the best on the West Coast.

HEALTHCARE & INSURANCE

The camp assumes no responsibility for accidents or illnesses. A staff of certified medical trainers will be on duty at all times. The medical staff will not be responsible for administering prescribed medication or treatment for major injuries or illness. Each camper is required to carry his or her own insurance and will be responsible for any medical care given on site or at hospital facilities.

REFUND POLICY

There is a $75 cancellation fee for all cancellations made at least two weeks prior to the first day of camp. Only cancellation requests received in writing prior to the first day of camp will be accepted. No refunds will be issued for cancellations received after the first day of camp or upon expulsion or voluntary withdrawal from camp.
